- 1) Savings
- 2) Sustainability
- 3) Systems & Technology
- 4) Security & Safety

How prepared are you when the clampdown is lifted?

Handheld metal scanners alone are no more enough to mitigate threats, because threat has changed its form. Hence we need to adapt our processes and technologies to ward of potential threats from this new animal.

It's extremely important that we are able to:

- 1) Identify and
- 2) Isolate the threat

Infra-red Cams can also be used.

- Easy to erect
- Minimal maintenance
- Space saving
- Economical
- Non toxic and safe
- Very effective in small doses
- Long-lasting effect
